PSHE

Powerful knowledge/skills for this unit:

Pupils learn about

Britain as a democratic society

- understand that Britain is a democratic society and what this means
- know that there are different political parties who differ in their views
- understand that people have opportunities to influence decisions by voting in elections

How laws are made

- know how laws are made and the importance of following them
- understand the contribution and influence that individuals and organisations can have on social and environmental change
- recognise that laws help to keep people safe

Pupils learn about the local council

- understand that the local council organises services under the guidance of the central government
- recognise there are limited resources for the needs of the community
- know that people may have different views about how council money should be spent

What should I already know:

What a community is.

How to vote in class.

To know others may think and feel differently from myself.

Big Question:

What law would you make and why?

Zones of regulation

The end point:

To know some of the government roles in the council and how people could change things for the better.
