

Year 6 Autumn 1 PSHE Human rights

PSHE

Powerful knowledge/skills for this unit:

Pupils learn about people who have moved from other places, (including the experience of refugees)

- understand what migration means
- identify the reasons why people move from one place to another
- are able to empathise with the experiences and challenges moving and settling in new place might bring

Human rights and the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child

- are aware how the rights are relevant to their lives and that rights come with responsibilities
- understand that individual human rights can sometimes conflict with the circumstances in a country

identify some of the organisations that represent and support the rights of the child and the difference they make

Homelessness

- can explain what makes a place where someone lives a 'home'
 - to be able to appreciate the difficulties of being homeless or living in temporary accommodation
- know about organisations and initiatives (including charities) that work with the homeless or people living in temporary accommodation

What should I already know:

How to celebrate difference.
Britain as a democratic society
Stereotypes discrimination and equality.

Big Question:

What are your rights as a child?

The end point

To know some of the rights of the child from the UN convention for the rights of the child
